Michael R. Sherer, Chicago-Kent 2016, has joined von Briesen & Roper s.c. and works from the Waukesha office. A member of the Labor and Employment Section, Sherer focuses on employment litigation, employment law counseling, collective bargaining, contract administration, and representation before the National Labor Relations Board. He has significant experience in employment litigation, including wage-and-hour claim, employment discrimination, Title I of the Americans with Disability Act, and wage-garnishment cases.

Appointments, Elections

Joe Ahlers, U.W. 2011, has been appointed by the president of the American Bar Association as chair of the ABA Standing Committee on Armed Forces Law. His appointment runs through 2025. Ahlers is an active-duty judge advocate and full-time instructor stationed at the Air Force Judge Advocate General's School at Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala.

Dane E. Allen, U.W. 1992, was elected by the residents of Lee County, Fla., to a four-year term on the board for the Lee Health System, one of the largest public-health systems in the U.S., with over 14,000 employees. Allen is assistant general counsel for the Hertz Corp., where he focuses on corporate governance and compliance matters.

The Hon. Carl Ashley, Marquette 1983, has been appointed by the Wisconsin Supreme Court to serve as chief judge of Wisconsin's First Judicial District. Ashley replaces the Hon. Mary E. Triggiano, U.W. 1988, who left the bench to take a job with Marquette University Law School. The chief judge oversees the operations of Milwaukee County's Circuit Court system and its 47 branches. Ashley was first elected a circuit court judge in 1999. Since then, he has presided over courtrooms in every division: Misdemeanor, Felony, Large Claims Civil, Children's Court, and Family Court. He also has experience hearing cases in some courts created to address specific problems and populations: the Adult Drug Treatment Court, the Veterans Treatment Court, and the Domestic Violence Court.

The Legal Association for Women (LAW) officers elected for 2023 are the following: president - Tracey L. Schwalbe, U.W. 1988; president-elect - Leslie A. Freehill, U.W. 2015; secretary - Elizabeth A. McInerny, U.W. 2015; and treasurer - Ailani Z. Taylor, U.W. 2018. Breanne L. Snapp, U.W. 2014, is past-president.

Jane Limprecht, U.W. 1980, has been elected treasurer of the Chesapeake Chapter of Sisters in Crime, an international organization that promotes the interests of women who write crime fiction. The "Chessie Chapter" covers northern Virginia, Maryland, and the District of Columbia.

Christa Wittenberg, Michigan 2012, has been elected to the board of O'Neil Cannon Hollman DeJong & Laing SC, Milwaukee.

Wittenberg is a member of the Litigation Practice Group, where she assists businesses and individuals with pursuing and defending a variety of complex civil litigation matters. She also is chair of the State Bar of Wisconsin's Communications Committee. Wittenberg replaces Dean Laing, Marquette 1983, who is immediate past president and managing shareholder of the firm, having served in those roles from 2015 to 2020. He remains with the firm as a shareholder.

Rebecca Cameron Valcq, Marquette 2000, has been reappointed as chair of the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin PSC and elected to the National Utilities Diversity Council (NUDC) Board. The NUDC conducts research to educate, develop best practices, and guide efforts that will promote diversity in the utilities and communications industries in the areas of governance, employment, procurement, language access/customer service, and philanthropy.
